FY21 estimates revised; Long-term assumptions remain unchanged

Haemato released final H1 2021 figures which were in line with the previously released preliminary figures.

We have revised our model to incorporate the newly raised guidance (sales EUR 280-300 and an EBIT of EUR 7-9m). We now expect sales of EUR 300m and an EBIT of EUR 9m. After talking to the CEO, this includes weaker-than-expected COVID19 test business (previously WRe EUR 27.5m; now WRe EUR 18m). Due to the change in the product mix and the resulting difference in the gross-margin assumptions, we are now expecting EBIT to be lower than our previous assumptions for the current year.

While the COVID19 test business missed our expectations, the good performance of the specialty pharma segment is encouraging and remains important for our investment case going forward. In our opinion, the COVID19 test business will be a one-off event in 2021 and will not play an important role in the coming years.

Haemato is well positioned to continue to participate in the growing German pharmaceutical market. The planned expansion into Botox and Hyaluronic acid will offer better margins than the specialty pharma segment.

We remain convinced of our investment case for Haemato and continue to issue a Buy recommendation.

Company Background

- Founded in 1993 the specialty pharma company Haemato is headquartered in Berlin and currently employs 151 people.
- The business activities are focused on growth markets for off-patent and patent-protected drugs and on the therapeutic areas of oncology, HIV, rheumatology, neurology and ophthalmology.
- After the acquisition of M1 Aesthetics, Haemato gained access to high-margin self-payer clinical beauty products and high-quality/low-price cosmetics and can develop those products with its product expertise.
- In addition to the area of parallel imports, which remains important, Haemato will address other profitable product areas. The focus will also be placed on higher-priced specialty APIs and the area of biosimilars.

Competitive Quality

- Haemato is a parallel import agent and wholesaler for 7,100 pharmacies in Germany and Austria and has established a position in the region's highly regulated healthcare market
- Haemato resells drugs and focuses on high-revenue indications such as oncology, HIV, rheumatology, neurology and ophthalmology using strong customer connections and European market surveillance
- The company aims to improve its product mix with higher-margin products in the area of DTC cosmetics and own-brand clinical beauty products, tapping into an increasing self-payer market.
- Lean organizational structure and well-established transaction channels allow higher-margin products to exert considerable leverage on Haemato's bottom line

DISCLOSURE ACCORDING TO §85 OF THE GERMAN SECURITIES TRADING ACT (WPHG), MAR AND MIFID II INCL. COMMISSION DELEGATED REGULATION (EU) 2016/958 AND (EU) 2017/565

The valuation underlying the investment recommendation for the company analysed here is based on generally accepted and widely used methods of fundamental analysis, such as e.g. DCF Model, Free Cash Flow Value Potential, NAV, Peer Group Comparison or Sum of the Parts Model (see also <http://www.mmwarburg.de/disclaimer/disclaimer.htm#Valuation>). The result of this fundamental valuation is modified to take into consideration the analyst's assessment as regards the expected development of investor sentiment and its impact on the share price.

Independent of the applied valuation methods, there is the risk that the price target will not be met, for instance because of unforeseen changes in demand for the company's products, changes in management, technology, economic development, interest rate development, operating and/or material costs, competitive pressure, supervisory law, exchange rate, tax rate etc. For investments in foreign markets and instruments there are further risks, generally based on exchange rate changes or changes in political and social conditions.

This commentary reflects the opinion of the relevant author at the point in time of its compilation. A change in the fundamental factors underlying the valuation can mean that the valuation is subsequently no longer accurate. Whether, or in what time frame, an update of this commentary follows is not determined in advance.

Additional internal and organisational arrangements to prevent or to deal with conflicts of interest have been implemented. Among these are the spatial separation of Warburg Research GmbH from M.M.Warburg & CO (AG & Co.) KGaA and the creation of areas of confidentiality. This prevents the exchange of information, which could form the basis of conflicts of interest for Warburg Research GmbH in terms of the analysed issuers or their financial instruments.

The analysts of Warburg Research GmbH do not receive a gratuity – directly or indirectly – from the investment banking activities of M.M.Warburg & CO (AG & Co.) KGaA or of any company within the Warburg-Group.

All prices of financial instruments given in this investment recommendation are the closing prices on the last stock-market trading day before the publication date stated, unless another point in time is explicitly stated.

M.M.Warburg & CO (AG & Co.) KGaA and Warburg Research GmbH are subject to the supervision of the Federal Financial Supervisory Authority, BaFin. M.M.Warburg & CO (AG & Co.) KGaA is additionally subject to the supervision of the European Central Bank (ECB).
